Exciting Programme and Numerous Opportunities

The Geneva2010 conference has a lot to offer!

There is something for everyone – high profile speakers and exciting debates about new research findings, policy and governance challenges, as well as practical implementation experiences; participative learning sessions and opportunities to meet current and future partners; and spaces for networking, exchange and fun!

PLENARIES

A number of prominent speakers from international organisations, public institutions and the non-profit sector, including Prof. Paul Hunt (UN Special Rapporteur on the Right to Health 2002-05), Rajendra Pachauri (Chairman, Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change (IPCC)), Maria Lourdes Fernando, (Mayor Marikina City, Philippines) and others will deliver valuable insights on the changes and challenges faced by societies today.

SUB-PLENARIES

Twenty sub-pleenary sessions will address and provide a platform for discussion of a wide variety of health promotion and sustainable development issues, ranging from:

- Change – Yes we can! Evidence on Salutogenic Pathways to Health Promotion
- Healthy and Sustainable Settings: Reflections and Future Directions
- Challenges and Issues around the evaluation of interventions
- Social Determinants for Health – A foundation to promote a human rights agenda
- What can health promotion learn from other social movements?
- Best practice in health promotion - quality standard(s) (ethics-based/evidence-based, context sensitive)
- Building Consensus on Domains of Core Competencies in Health Promotion
- Capacity Building - sustainable financing and infrastructures for health promotion and other exciting topics.

POSTER AND PARALLEL SESSIONS

More than

- 80 workshops,
- 40 symposia,
- 45 oral presentation sessions
- 15 electronic poster sessions
- 16 guided poster tours

- as well as and more than 1500 poster presentations

will take place and be presented during the 4 days of the conference.

Everybody will have a chance to learn from everybody! Next to traditional presentations the participants will have the possibility to experience participative learning sessions: generate and try out new ideas (e.g. workshops, electronic poster sessions, etc.).
