

Are you looking for a unique volunteer opportunity in health care?

Capital Health Ethics Support is seeking a qualified volunteer to fulfill the coordinator role for its Organizational Ethics component.

Ethics is about the ways in which we do and should treat each other, and involves a systematic exploration of our values and actions.

Working at the organizational level, this volunteer role provides the opportunity to:

- facilitate discussion about values in decision-making across the district, and
- engage in the ethics aspects of challenging issues faced by Capital Health

We are seeking applications from individuals with a mix of the following skills and experience:

- ethics training and experience
- facilitation and leadership abilities
- knowledge of health care

The time commitment is about a day or two a month. A small stipend is provided. This role offers the opportunity to join a team of people committed to making a positive difference at Capital Health.

For more information or an application form, please contact Kim Ambrose @ 473-1564 or kim.ambrose@cdha.nshealth.ca

Applications will be accepted until: Monday, September 14, 2009.

CHES
Capital Health
Ethics Support